"I have just received my 4th appraisal request and I am thrilled with my subscription to rent.com.au! I advertise on a number of websites including realestate.com.au, but only rent.com.au delivers leads from private landlords. Of the enquiries I received from rent.com.au, I signed three of the four managements – all at premium fees. Great results – thank you for your partnership!"

Amanda Kerr, Property Manager, Capricorn Property Management, Innaloo

"I would like to bring to your attention the terrific results that we are achieving with your website. We have recently received 6 leads from prospective landlords from your website and would like to congratulate you and your staff for the excellent web site that you have launched.

Five of the leads generated through your website have been converted to clients now and we may have not got these client contact if it was not for the website.

Once again, Well Done."

Karen D Williams, Senior Property Manager, Best Benchmark Property Management

"It's more than just getting more enquiries per letting. It's now time to take the next step toward building your brand online, streamlining online practices and making your rental property management process more cost effective and profitable. rent.com.au provides tools and services to turbo charge your ability to achieve these goals".

Dorothy Hamilton, Property Manager, First National Real Estate, Palm Beach

"rent.com.au seems to be the most logical prospective site for renters and I really like the look and feel of it and how easy it is to navigate through the site."

Brian Mollan, Principal, Raine and Horne, Belmont

"Apple Property is a new business and we are trying to compete with large well established companies. I see rent.com.au as an opportunity to be on a level playing field with these companies. I signed up as soon as I heard about the site. Domain names are so important and played a big part in my choosing apple property for my company name (the domain was available).

I think the "Find a Property Manager" feature will be really popular with Landlords as the site becomes more well known. I can't wait to see how the site goes, every time I log on I see more agents joining".

Louise Shirvington, Licensee in Charge, Apple Property Management, Waratah

"I did some research, and feel that seeing as our rent roll is our key drive of income, decided that we would give rent.com.au a go as it is targeted to RENTALS only, which is a point of difference to all the other portals out there, which do everything rather than focus on one area".

Rhonda Hirst, Marketing Manager, Andrews Corporation (Vic) Pty Ltd, Carlton

"The site is easy to use and is ideal for what we busy property managers do".

Claudia Gagliano, Property Manager, LJ Hooker, Sans Souci

"Using rent.com.au to advertise our properties available for rent was really easy. We use Rockend REST Professional, the instructions were easy and straight forward and there were no problems whatsoever. Thanks".

Andrea Gallagher, Sales Secretary, Century 21 Classique Realty, North Perth

"Our agency is happy to be working with rent.com.au to advertise our rental listings. I have found the website both respectable and professional. The level of service is of a high standard and it has become obvious to us that it is growing to be the one stop shop for all rental based enquires. As a result, it would be in any serious property managers best interests to jump on board & successfully maximise their exposure".

Laurence Williams, Ray White, Hervey Bay

"It's wonderful to see a website Property Managers can use, dedicated solely to rental properties. It's got everything we need for the promotion of our rentals and we were impressed with how quickly we were able to get our properties loaded. rent.com.au is also a valuable site where we can promote our brand and receive property management and landlord leads.

Well done to everyone involved with the site".

Rebecca Sharples, Property Manager, Ray White Toronto

"rent.com.au is a wonderful opportunity to target the needs of renters and I have been thoroughly impressed by the foresight of founder Mark Woschnak who has invested years into this versatile website. Also, their monthly newsletters keep us up to date with trends and information that makes our advertising and marketing easier, which in turn benefits the landlord."

Our company has chosen to spend more marketing dollars on internet advertising and has found that subscribing to websites such as rent.com.au provides our leasing department with a high number of enquiries resulting in leased properties and therefore happy new tenants and happy investors".

Brett Wilkins, Managing Director, Coldwell Banker Pro Property, National Head Office

Industry Endorsements

"It's about time! rent.com.au has successfully filled a large gap in the market by providing a site dedicated to rental property".

Bob Walters, Managing Director, BWT, leading property management expert, Camperdown

"rent.com.au is the nation's leading website for searching and listing rentals online. It's 100% dedicated to the Rental Market and perfect for property managers interested in increasing productivity and their bottom line".

Adrian Roche, Managing Director, RentPay, North Sydney

"rent.com.au, a new site looks to dominate the rental space"

Phillip Knight, Marketing Manager, Aussiehome.com

"The features for searchers and property managers alike are impressive, and we recommend using rent.com.au to grow your business".

Noel Crabbe, Managing Director, Au1net, Tuggerah

"rent.com.au now provides a new cost effective channel dedicated to the rental market. A good quality service like rent.com.au, which is dedicated to rental property, has not been seen before. The advantage for property managers is that it is specialised in the marketing and presentation of property management and rental listings".

John Goddard, CEO, Rockend, St Leonards

"rent.com.au is where people looking to lease property search, and where property managers looking to fill vacancies need to be listed. It's that simple."

Eddie Lynch, Managing Director, PortPlus, Melbourne

Renters Comments

"rent.com.au is a very good idea. It's tapping into the renter market. I rent and it's hard to find a property that suits your needs".

Lauren Briggs

"Definitely a user friendly site. It is easy to navigate and unlike other property sites, it has rental information as its primary focus, rather than property sales."

I found the "Important Links" tab to be particularly useful. In the past I have wasted a lot of time searching for rental tenancy legal information".

Matthew Keane

Anyway, keep up the good and fast service that you provide. I am very happy with it and check your site everyday before 7am without fail until we get a house. I have also told my friends about this service who have also started to use your service. I couldn't be happier. Thanks".
