

Pets more welcome

EIGHTY per cent of renters said they would own a pet if allowed and 60 per cent said pet-friendliness affected their choice of rental.

The results came from a Rent.com.au survey of more than 800 renters.

Real Estate Institute of WA property management co-chair Michelle Aslander said there was evidence of progress on the issue of pets.

The number of advertisements of properties as “pet-friendly” was increasing.